

Meet.....

Riverside School's

Head Boy and Head Girl
(and their Deputies)

All Team 1 Year 11 students had the opportunity to put themselves forward for election to these posts. They had to prepare speeches and conduct a campaign to encourage staff and students to vote for them.

An election took place and the results decided which students were elected to the posts.

Head Boy

Head Girl

Deputy Head Boy

Deputy Head Girl

Head Boy/Head Girl Person Specification	Head Boy/Head Girl Job Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kind and caring towards other students. • Good at listening to students and staff. • Responsible and reliable. • Organised – can help organise things when needed to. • Can work well with other students. • Enough confidence to do the job. • Can offer leadership (not bossing about) of students. • Good at communicating (in whatever way best suits the situation). • Can think of good ideas to solve problems with others. • Able to manage and oversee other positions of responsibility. • Approachability- people need to feel they can come to you at any time with a problem. • Willing to give up their own time for meetings, and planning. • Able to attend and speak as necessary at school events, including governors' meetings • Prepared to attend parents' meetings, open evenings, celebration of success and other events. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet with student groups as required. • Be able to listen to the needs of students. • Be able to tell staff what is on students' minds. • Be able to tell staff what students may need. • Investigate what aspects of the school require improvement from a student point of view. • Raise awareness on issues important to students. • Report regularly to the headteacher on matters raised by students. • Deliver presentations to students, staff, governors and parents. • Take part in decision-making. • Make a difference!